

he had been approached and offered money by Franklin. Attorney Darrow made it very plain that he did not object to this line of questioning, but that if the court permitted it, he would demand whether any further jurors to be interrogated had been approached by the state's attorneys.

If this is done it is likely real trouble will result. It is already certain that as a result of the bribery charges the task of getting a jury will be prolonged.

When Darrow came into court today he indicated that he will make this matter a real issue from now on.

JURY FINDS GERTRUDE PATTERSON NOT GUILTY

Denver, Colo., Nov. 29.—Gertrude Gibson Patterson was acquitted of the murder of her husband, Charles A. Patterson.

The jury returned its verdict late this afternoon. Judge Allan early this morning ordered his court room closed for the day. He attended the funeral of a former colleague.

The jury took its first ballot at 9 o'clock this morning. It is said that the first ballot stood 9 for acquittal and 3 for conviction of involuntary manslaughter, the punishment for which is not more than one year in the county jail.

Mrs. Patterson broke down when the verdict was read in court this afternoon.

"Oh, thank God, thank God," she cried, and broke into uncontrollable sobbing.

She had passed all last night in prayer. The matron at the county jail visited her cell several times. On each occasion, she found Mrs. Patterson on her knees, praying that she might be acquitted.

LADIES PLEASE NOTICE

New York club women assembled at the Hotel Astor to find out what is the matter with them. "Too many jewels and clothes," Henry Turner Bailey of Boston told them. He continued:

"Unless a woman's eyes are more dazzling than her jewels she should remove some of her jewels. Whenever any portion of your costume, ladies, sticks out like a sore thumb, you are overdressed. To be brief, you should be more conspicuous than your costume."

Then came Mrs. Cooley, secretary of the Social Science clubs, with the warning that women are eating too much. "Think of it!" she exclaimed. "You are putting into your delicate stomachs 30 oxen 100 cows, 200 sheep, 50 pigs, 30,000 oysters, 24,000 eggs—every one of you!"

Great heavens, no wonder we men are poor! But hold! she says: "That's what you eat in a lifetime of 70 years."

That's better. We can perhaps manage to feed 'em on the installment plan.

When an English suffragette starts out to agitate she carries a bag with a change of clothing. She knows it will come handy in jail.
